- Experience Spain's stunning coast, with moments of beach time, prayer in Muxía and exploring charming seaside towns.

Though rich in history and beauty, Spain is spiritually dry, especially along the Camino de Santiago, where thousands of pilgrims walk seeking meaning but rarely encounter the Gospel. This opportunity invites you to be a light in that spiritual desert, offering rest, hope and truth to weary travelers. Through hands-on outreach, youth engagement and practical service, you'll help plant seeds of faith in a country where evangelical presence is still small. If you're drawn to relational ministry, cultural immersion and sharing Jesus in creative ways, Spain is calling.

In the heart of northern Italy, Piemonte is known for its stunning landscapes and rich culture, but beneath the beauty lies a deep spiritual need. Evangelical Christians make up a tiny fraction of the population, and many locals have never encountered the Gospel in a personal way. This opportunity offers a chance to bring hope to places often overlooked: schools, nursing homes, markets and youth programs. Through relational outreach, cultural exchange and practical service, you'll help shine the light of Christ in a region where faith is often tradition without transformation.

- Visit a UNESCO-recognized heritage site, gaining insight into the region's deep history and traditions.

The AP is a global crossroads, home to people from hundreds of nations, many from places where the gospel is restricted or unknown. In this dynamic region, you'll engage least-reached communities through cultural immersion, career exploration and strategic networking. This opportunity equips you to live missionally in the global marketplace. If you want to use your career for Kingdom impact and see how God is moving in one of the world's most diverse and spiritually needy regions, this is your gateway.
